This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

OF THE

MICHIGAN STATE LIBRARY.

RULE I.

The Library shall be kept open on each day (except Sundays and legal holidays) from 8 o'clock A. M. to 12 o'clock M., and from half past 1 o'clock to 5 o'clock P. M. On Saturdays to 4 o'clock P. M.

RULE II.

No person except members of the Legislature, State officers, and the clerks employed in the public offices, shall be permitted to take from the Library any book, map, or publication belonging thereto.

RULE III.

No book, map, or other publication shall be kept, by any person entitled to take the same from the Library, over ten days at any one time, nor shall more than three volumes be taken at any one time by the same person, or on his account.

RULE IV.

Any person detaining any book, map, or other publication belonging to the Library, over ten days at any one time, shall forfeit and pay to the Librarian, for each day's detention, ten cents.

RULE V.

Any person taking any book, map, or other publication from the Library, shall be liable for all damages done thereto while in his possession, which damages shall be assessed by the Librarian, and paid to him or her by the person taking such book, map, or other publication.

RULE VI.

No person who shall refuse or neglect to pay any fine when required by the Librarian, for keeping any book, map, or other publication over ten days, or shall neglect or refuse, for the space of ten days, to pay to the Librarian aforesaid all damages assessed by him or her by virtue of the rules of the Library, after receiving notice of such assessment, shall thereafter be permitted to take any book, map, or other publication, from the Library.

RULE VII.

Any member of the Legislature having in his possession any book, map, or other publication belonging to the Library, shall return the same four days before the adjournment of the Legislature.

RULE VIII.

Three days before the adjournment of the Legislature, the Librarian shall report to the Senate and House of Representatives the name of each member of the Legislature who has not returned all books, maps, or other publications taken out of the Library by such member, and settled and paid all accounts for fines, for injuring such books, or otherwise.

RULE IX.

All such books, maps, or other publications as the Governor and Secretary of State shall determine are necessary always to be kept in the Library as books of reference, shall at no time be taken therefrom.

RULE X.

No person, except the one having charge of the Library shall be permitted to take from or replace in the case, any book, map, or other publication.

RULE XI.

All damages and fines collected by the Librarian by virtue of these rules shall be expended by him or her in the purchase of books for the Library, and an account of all moneys so collected shall be kept by him or her.

RULE XII.

All persons desirous of taking any books, pamphlets, or maps, from the State Library, are required to report to the Librarian the title or titles of such books, pamphlets, or maps, prior to removing the same from the Library rooms.

RULE XIII.

Smoking, loud talking, laughing, and all noise inappropriate to a quiet place of study, are strictly prohibited.
